

Interested in religion, faith or spirituality – believer or not?

The Ottawa School of Theology & Spirituality (OSTS) is a lay- and volunteer-run school committed to adult theological and spiritual education. We are into our second half-century of offering informative courses of interest to everyone.

The fall 2015 and winter 2016 courses include many informative, exciting and thought-provoking subjects:

- SPIRITUALITY: St Dominic & St Francis of Assisi; Mysticism
- BIBLICAL ROOTS: Poetry of Faith; Celebrations in Judaism; The Book of Common Prayer; Letter to the Galatians; Bahá'í Faith
- RELIGIOUS MUSIC: Handel's Messiah; Black Gospel Music
- CURRENT ISSUES: Women and Islam; Journey at the End of Life; Relations with Indigenous Peoples

When: Mondays: September 21 – November 30, 2015
& January 11 – March 21, 2016
First class starts at 7:30 p.m.; second class at 8:40 p.m.

Where: Dominican University College, 96 Empress Avenue
(north off Somerset Street and west of Bronson Avenue)
Wheelchair accessible. Free parking in lot and on streets.

Cost: $75 per term for 2 courses; $140 for both terms

Registration: Online at <http://keynetz.com/osts/1/registration.htm> or prior to the first class at 7:00 p.m. on Monday, Sept. 21

More info: Visit our website at www.osts.ca
Call Pierre LaViolette: (613) 730-2060
or Martha Wiebe: (613) 730-6902
Email: president@osts.ca